

What you've learnt already

- Bolton and London are in the same continent – Europe (Y1)
- We live in Bolton and it is smaller than London (EYFS & Y1)
- Both places have human and physical features. (Y2 Autumn)
- They share common features e.g. rivers, schools, bridges. (Y2 Autumn)
- London is the capital city of England. (Y2 Autumn)

Choices

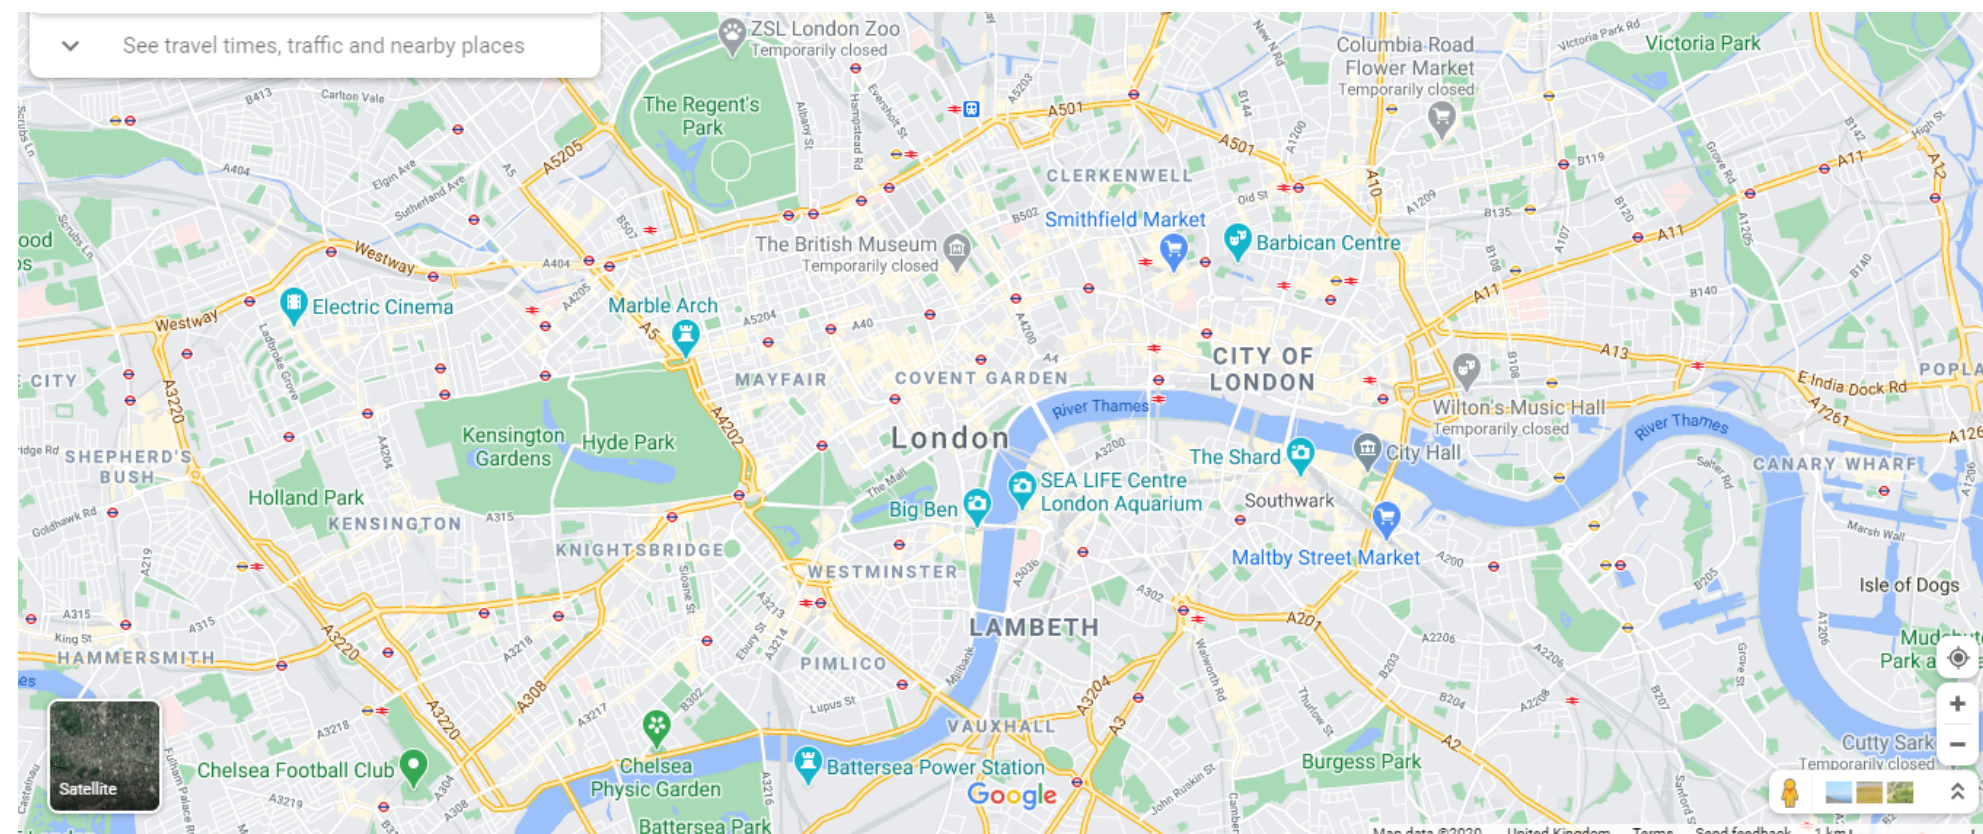

- Discussion of the choices that people make in London e.g. living, travel arrangements, where to visit (tourist)
- The choices that people can make at Parliament. How they can make a choice in the future.

Key Vocabulary

Landmarks	An object or feature of a town.
Tourist	Someone that visits a place where they don't live.
Population	The number of people who live in a place.
Climate	The type of weather in a certain place.
Aerial Photograph	A photograph taken from above.
Physical feature	Features that are natural and not made by humans.
Human feature	Features that are made by humans.

London and Bolton

Maps

Lesson Sequence

L1	WALT—Explore London and it's famous landmarks
L2	WALT—Explore London in the past
L3	WALT—Predict how London's land use will change
L4	WALT— Compare London to Bolton
L5	WALT— Observe and record local hazards

Human Features

The London Eye, Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, Houses of Parliament, Tower Bridge, St Paul's Cathedral

Physical Features

The River Thames

London and Bolton

What happens at The Houses of Parliament?

Who may travel into London and why?

Where is London located?

Why aren't there many physical features in the city of London?

Why do you think so many people go to London?

What is the other name for The Houses of Parliament?

What noticeable changes can you see looking at maps of London in 1666 to now?

What landmarks will I find in London?

How can I travel around London?

Where will I find Tower Bridge?

How are Bolton and London similar?

How are Bolton and London different?

One Point

Two Points

Three Points

Four Points

UNIT

One Point	Two Points	Three Points	Four Points
-----------	------------	--------------	-------------