This week at Downholland Haskayne

As we approach the end of the first half term, we reflect upon all the children have achieved. It has been wonderful to welcome so many new faces into school. We are always looking to welcome anyone who may consider joining us so please do keep spreading the word.

I hope all connected to the school have a lovely week next week for half term and the children return refreshed and replishied ready for the lead up to the Christmas holidays.

See you all again on Monday 2nd November.
