

Downholland Haskayne CE Primary

Wednesday Weekly

20th May 2026. Issue 30

This week at Downholland Haskayne

A busy and exciting week at school this week.

On Monday, a group of children visited Lydiate Gate to learn about the construction industry and the jobs within the sector. The children loved having a go at bricklaying with some leaving with an interest in the industry.

Today we held our outdoor learning day with lots of fun outdoor activities. Thank you to all who helped out today it was really appreciated.

This week we also welcomed our new reception parents for their first 'official' visit to school. We are already excited for your children to start with us in September.
