28TH APRIL 2023

Head Lines

Thank you to all the children who have entered the Chorley Shed's design a mural competition. The judging for the entries will be taking place in two weeks' time. The reception children enjoyed their visit to the farm on Wednesday and had some lovely weather for their trip too.

A reminder that we have lots of events going on in school next week in celebration of the King's Coronation. Kingo Bingo will be taking place after school on Wednesday. There are still a few tickets remaining. The school kitchen will be serving a coronation themed lunch on Thursday and we will be having a red, white and blue non-uniform day on Friday.

Lancashire Walks to School Day will mark coronation

Pupils and teachers will be invited to take part in a new Lancashire Walks to School Day in May to promote the benefits of walking over getting dropped off in the car, and celebrate the coronation of King Charles.

Lancashire Walks to School Day will be held on Friday 19th May and will be a chance for children to highlight their concerns about climate change, air pollution, traffic congestion, and the impact that parking close to the school gates has on them.
