Head Lines

Thank you to all the families who came along to the PTFA's King Bingo on Wednesday evening. We hope you all enjoyed the session. We've had further coronation celebrations in school this week with our special coronation lunch yesterday and our red, white and blue non uniform day today. We hope you all enjoy more family time over the coronation bank holiday this weekend too.

Spruce class were busy yesterday morning teaching their parents all about base ten and how they use it in maths. The children did an amazing job and were proud to show off all they had learnt. Thank you again to all those parents who attended.

Lancashire Walks to School Day will mark coronation

Pupils and teachers will be invited to take part in a new Lancashire Walks to School Day in May to promote the benefits of walking over getting dropped off in the car, and celebrate the coronation of King Charles. Lancashire Walks to School Day will be held on Friday 19th May and will be a chance for children to highlight their concerns about climate change, air pollution, traffic congestion, and the impact that parking close to the school gates has on them.
