Those of you with a long association with the school may remember Janet Catterall, who worked in our school kitchen for many years until her retirement in 2003. Many of her family came to the school as pupils. Sadly, she passed away recently and her funeral took place at St George's church last week, attended by family, friends and representatives of Duke Street Primary School.

There has been a flurry of activity in the school corridors this week with staff displaying the incredible art work the children have been completing during this term. We have some lovely displays being worked on linked to the work of Andy Warhol, Vincent Van Gogh, Vassily Kandinsky and Florent Stoskopf. The displays are around the theme of flowers and are being carefully constructed under Mr Stephens' watchful eye. Watch this space for the final products. To accompany the floral art work, Miss Lee has also been busy adding some floral touches to the school playground.

Thank you to all the families that came along and supported the PTFA's chocolate tombola earlier in the year. Mr Allen is delighted with his new playground equipment which has been purchased with the money raised.

Rose and Tulip class in EYFS are looking for some items to add to their provision in class and outdoors, that they hope people can donate. So please think of us when you are having your next clear out. We would appreciate any toy cars, barbies/dolls, action figures, old kitchen utensils (including pans), old fashioned weighing scales, dressing up outfits, hats, handbags, blazers/jackets, paintbrushes/rollers and any wooden ladders. Items can be passed straight to class or left at the office and we will pick them up.
