What another great enriching day we had in school yesterday, celebrating World Book Day. The children and staff all looked amazing in their book character costumes. A big thank you for all your support with this at home. The children enjoyed a range of activities throughout the day, including some virtual author sessions. The day was finished off with staff moving classes for an end of the day read with a different class. Check out the class posts on Twitter.

We have also been treated to a wide range of amazing performances this week, from children who have auditioned for this year's Duke Street's Got Talent. Well done to everyone who put themselves forward. In the spirit of Miss Young's assembly this week, you gave it a go and said 'YES!', to trying something new. You should all feel very proud of yourselves.
