The final of Duke Street's Got Talent took place last night and the audience were treated to yet more outstanding performances.

The judges were 3 siblings and former pupils Kay, Robert and (ex Everton player) David Unsworth. What a difficult job they had.

Third place was shared by Olivia K (singing) and Olivia P. (story telling).

Second place was shared by Charlotte G (singing) and Archie (flags of the world). The winner was Darcy from Tulip class singing "Let It Go". Well done to the 100 children who auditioned and to everyone in the final for taking part.

Well done to everyone today for wearing their hats and donating money to Brain Tumour Research. We raised over £270.
