

Duke Street Primary School

Disability Equality Scheme

At Duke Street Primary School, we are committed to ensuring equality of education and opportunity for disabled pupils, staff and all those receiving services from the school. We aim to develop a culture of inclusion and diversity in which people feel free to disclose their disability and to participate fully in school life. The achievement of disabled pupils and students will be monitored and we will use this data to raise standards and ensure inclusive teaching. We will make reasonable adjustments to make sure that the school environment is as accessible as possible. At Duke Street, we believe that diversity is a strength, which should be respected and celebrated by all those who learn, teach and visit here.

This scheme should be read in conjunction with the following documents: Accessibility Plan; Behaviour Policy; Education Visits Policy; Inclusion Policy; Safeguarding policy

Legal requirements/role of Governing Body

Under Part 5A of the DDA governing bodies are required to:

- promote equality of opportunity for disabled people: pupils, staff, parents, carers and other people who use the school or may wish to; and
- prepare and publish a disability equality scheme to show how they will meet these duties.

This scheme and the accompanying action plans set out how the governing body of Duke Street Primary School will promote equality of opportunity for young people and adults.

In addition, duties in Part 4 of the DDA require the governing body to increase access to education for disabled pupils in 3 ways:

- increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school curriculum;
- improving the environment of the school to increase the extent to which disabled pupils can take advantage of education and associated services;
- improving the delivery to disabled pupils of information which is provided in writing for pupils who are not disabled.

Accessibility Plan

The school's accessibility plan outlines the school's vision and values for improving children's access to the curriculum, to the environment and to information provided by the school (please see appendix 1). There are also further details regarding our accessibility arrangements outlined in the SEND policy, SEND information report and school offer.

What do we understand by "disability"?

At Duke Street Primary School we promote disability equality and prepare all our young people for life in a diverse society. We use the term 'disabled' to refer to someone who has:

'a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term, adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.'

We use the DDA the definition of impairment to include hidden impairments such as dyslexia, autism, speech and language impairments, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) as well as:

- 'physical impairment' which includes sensory impairment;
- 'mental impairment' which includes learning difficulties and an impairment resulting from or consisting of a mental illness.

We believe that an impairment does not of itself mean that a pupil is disabled. It is the effect on the pupil's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities that has to be considered.

In relation to normal day-to-day activity the test of whether an impairment affects normal day-to-day activity is whether it affects one or more of the following:

- mobility;
- manual dexterity;
- physical co-ordination;
- continence;
- ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects;
- speech, hearing or eyesight;
- memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand;
- perception of risk of physical danger

The core value of Duke Street Primary School in relation to disability is to actively seek to:

- promote equality of opportunity between disabled persons and other persons
- eliminate discrimination that is unlawful under the Act
- eliminate harassment of disabled persons that is related to their disabilities

- promote positive attitudes towards disabled persons -This means not representing people in a demeaning way, and it also means not pretending they don't exist and not representing them anywhere at all.
- encourage participation by disabled persons in public life -It is also important to respect the wishes of disabled children in an educational setting so that they do not feel pushed into activities they do not wish to take part in.
- take steps to take account of disabled persons' disabilities, even where that involves treating disabled persons more favourably than other persons.

(DDA 2005 S.49A)

Further details regarding our school philosophy for inclusion and how we meet the needs of pupils with disabilities can be obtained from the SEND policy and SEND information report in coincidence with legal requirements and the Code of Practise (2014).

Involvement and consultation

It is a requirement that disabled pupils, staff and those using school services should be involved in the production of the Disability Equality Scheme.

These systems will be monitored closely so that the school can improve communication with and involvement of disabled people to inform future DES planning.

Involvement of parents/carers and other agencies is a vital part to ensuring that we successfully meet the needs of pupils with disabilities. The SEND policy and information report clearly outline the routines within school for communicating with parents/carers and other agencies.

Gathering Information

To meet the Disability Equality Duty, it is essential that aspects of school life are monitored to identify whether there is an adverse impact on children and young people with disabilities. At Duke Street Primary School, the following information is monitored:

- How many disabled children in school/what impairment groups represented / not represented
- How you collect information on disability of new pupils as part of admissions e.g. 'does your child have any learning difficulty, medical need or disability'
- Achievement of pupils by disability
- Disabled staff (including numbers, type of disability and satisfaction rates in staff surveys etc.)staff who have rights under the DDA
- Attendance at extracurricular activities
- Involvement in educational visits including the residential visit

- Behaviour Logs on CPOMs
- Participation in assemblies/school council
- Participation in class/positions of responsibility in class/school
- Any feedback from surveys/questionnaires
- Attendance
- Exclusions

The school also monitors its provision in the following areas and pays regard to:

The role of a school as a service provider

Assessing the impact of school policies

In order to ensure that action is taken to meet the Disability Equality Duty, Duke Street Primary School will review all policies on a rolling programme as highlighted in the school's action plan and will take into account views gathered from all stakeholders, including those with disabilities, in assessing the impact of school policies
