We were very excited to hear that Emily and Annabelle have been awarded with a Blue Peter book badge following them sharing their love of books with the Blue Peter team. It has been so lovely to see them wearing their badges with pride around school. There is a link below to the Blue Peter website where you can find information out about how your child can apply for the badge. We look forward to seeing many more around school.

Next week is national anti-bullying week. We will be completing work in school linked to this around the theme of 'kindness'. We will be holding an odd sock day on Wednesday 15th November. The children can come to school that day in normal school uniform but wearing a pair of odd socks.

We will also be supporting the charity Children in Need on Friday 17th November. For a donation to the charity, the children can come to school in non-uniform or any Pudsey Bear related clothing they wish to.

KCSiE, CYBER AND ME

The education sector is particularly vulnerable to cyber attacks but did you know the majority of those attacks are likely to be from students?

It is important to report concerns to your designated safeguarding leads at the earliest indication of cyber offending.
