Vlth Form

2-0 W v Carmel College

Johnston went into this game with a few injuries and so called upon Year 11s James Lythgoe, Will Cornish and Matthew Rowley none of whom looked out of their depth. The game in fairness was very poor, DJ having a lot of the ball but not really creating many chances until a long throw into the box by Will Robinson was volleyed home by Max McKay, much to Mr Kidd's delight. From this point the game was scrappy, and Carmel began to see more of the ball only to be denied by Oscar Davis in goal on multiple occasions. With 10 minutes to go, and DJ approaching a nervous end to the game, some more Wardy magic extended the lead to 2-0 and Durham came home with the three points.
