Super-curricular Y12&Y13	23 Societies continue this week: all welcome! Mrs Nixon has emailed the societies and their time and locations to you all. https://mei.org.uk/data-science-taught-course/ The Data Science Taught Course is designed for A level Mathematics and Core Maths students. The course will take place over 10-11 online lessons. Each lesson will focus on a particular aspect of data science and include opportunities for students to explore some coding tasks using Python. Students will work on real data taken from different contexts, including topics such as the environment, health, commerce, and world development indicators. Students will be assessed through both a practical assessment task and a short examination and will be awarded a certificate on completion.
