

gestation period

adolescence

puberty

hormone

growth stage humans)

the period during which adolescents reach sexual maturity and become capable of reproduction a chemical released in a gland that travels to other parts of the body where it helps control how cells and organs do their work growth stages before old age human growth stages the time in which a foetus develops, beginning with fertilization and ending at birth (it lasts nine months in the period following the onset of puberty during which a young person develops from a child into an adult infancy, childhood, adolescence, and adulthood are human

Human

changes in puberty

- muscles and bones grow larger
- females develop breasts and their hips widen
- males shoulders widen and their voice deepens
- both females and males grow hair under their arms and around their genitals
- females start menstruating (periods begin)
- males produce sperm in testes
- hormonal changes produce mood swings

2 months

8 months

