

KEY
VOCABULARY

cushion

fabric

natural fabric

synthetic fabric

felt

appliqué

seam

a bag of fabric stuffed with soft material used to lean or sit on, with two sides which are joined by a seam (a cushion can be decorated with appliqué)

cloth made from threads – clothes are made from fabric fabric which is made from natural materials, such as plants or animals – for example, cotton is made from plants, wool is made from sheep's wool fabric which is made from man-made materials, like polyester or nylon fabric which is made by pressing materials together – felt is often made from wool (a natural fabric)

where pieces of fabric are sewn onto a larger piece to create a picture or a pattern – overcast stitch can be used to make appliqué

a line where two pieces of fabric are joined together, usually by stitching – running stitch and backstitch can be used to create a seam

appliqué decoration
pinned onto a layer of
fabric

appliqué decoration
attached with overcast
stitch

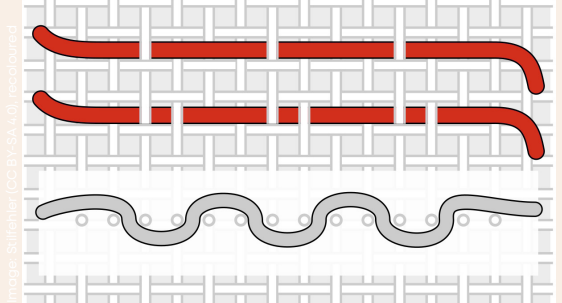

design criteria

user
who is the product for?

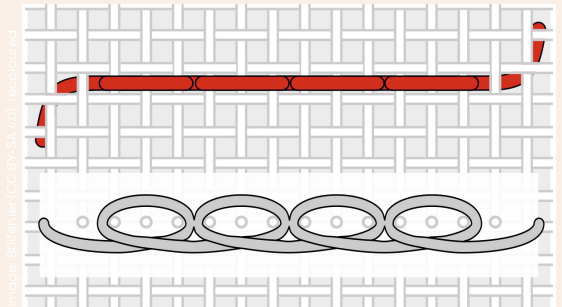

purpose or function
what is the product for?

aesthetic appeal
how is the design of the product pleasing to look at?

stitches

running stitch

backstitch

overcast stitch (or whip stitch)