Parents' Evening

Thank you for attending our parents' evening. We hope it was useful in terms of where/how to best support your child for the remainder of the year.

Mrs Barber's reconvened appointments: 23rd April. The office will send a reminder on 22nd April.

Easter Home Learning

Your child should come home with a pack/sheets, or their study book (Year 5/6) to keep them busy over Easter. Little & often is the key.

Additionally, keep the academic momentum going each day...

- Read every day
- Read the TV – PUT THE SUBTITLES ON!
- TTRS (Rockstars)
- Numbots
- Spelling Shed

As always, we would love to hear about your child's commitment to learning and any other Curriculum +

Your egg decorating winners for 2025, ladies & gentlemen! Thank you to all the children for their hard work and effort, once again this year – picking a small number is never easy as our children are so wonderfully creative & determined. Thank you parents for ensuring – not only all children had an egg – but that they were especially hard-boiled & positively caged! Egg Decorating Day 2025 actually smelt good in school!

Egg Rolling

Our children always look forward to this one. There's always a few surprises, but truly shell-shocked with this year's drama: Emilia to be crowned the Queen, only to hear that Umar's egg kept going...our first joint winners ever! Well done to Nova & Freddie for being such worthy opponents and great sports. Cracking!

Happy Easter, All

4 magic moments just from this week:

1. Standing back, in the sun, on the field at lunchtime and watching happy and engaged pupils playing on the hill, gym, trim trail, football, basketball, scootering, EYFS area, lego & hooping etc. Not to mention, our new, 15 School Buddies during their shift (more to come after Easter!) wearing their purple tabards and deploying themselves to create and facilitate play for other pupils – how far we've come.
2. 105 pupils in the Hall, perfectly behaved, spectating and joining in the egg rolling festivities. Such a sense of fun and comradery with each other – staff & pupils.
3. Occasionally, I like to position myself, during an assembly at the front, on the side, just to watch pupils' expressions. During the Gener-8 assembly, I loved watching the expressions on the children's faces, transfixed, especially our youngest pupils, as the puppets performed.
4. The solidarity and sense of community & support I always feel from you, the parents – especially tangible during parents' evening.

Just four, small examples, in an ever-growing repertoire of moments that makes working alongside our staff; our parents; our Trust; our Governors; our volunteers, and most of all, our children, the absolute privilege that it is, and continues to be.

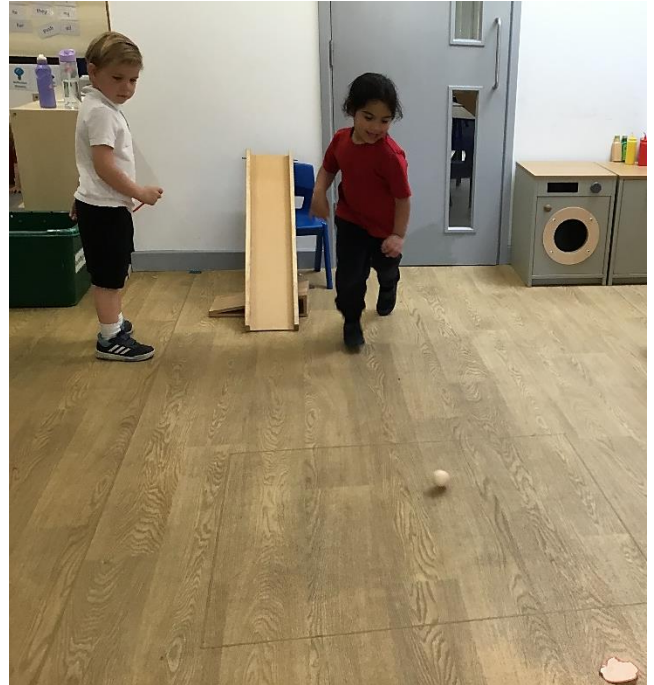

On behalf of the Active Learning Trust, our staff and governors, to all our parents, volunteers and children, we hope you all have a restful and well-deserved Easter break.

Learning Highlights of the Week

Antony Highlights:

This week, children in Antony Class have been finding out about how and why Easter is celebrated. They have enjoyed taking part in egg decorating and egg rolling — they were even inspired to create their own egg rolling competition back in class!

Wenzel Highlights:

This week, our Year 1/2 class has been busy rewriting the story of The Three Little Pigs! We focused on using speech marks to show when characters are speaking and brought the story to life by acting it out. The children had great fun stepping into the roles of the pigs and the Big Bad Wolf, using expression and actions to retell the tale. It has been wonderful to see their confidence grow in using dialogue in their writing!

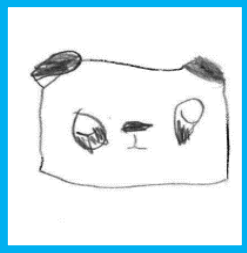

Larwood Highlights:

An egg-cellent week in Larwood Class has seen us egg rolling, egg decorating and egg hunting! In Art this week, we have been making models (and messes!) as we have built a replica of the Roman Pantheon of out lollipop sticks and card. In Science, we have discovered how the human body creates and hears sounds, and in English lessons we have been writing descriptive pieces about new villainous characters for our class novel, The Wind in the Willows.

Rauf Highlights:

P.E. was undoubtedly a highlight in Rauf Class this week! The students showcased their skills by playing a competitive game with great success. Their understanding of marking, passing, and moving with the ball was exceptional, demonstrating both teamwork and individual talent. It's clear we have some budding hockey stars in the making. Well done, Rauf Class
