Parenting Top Tip

How can I help my child manage angry feelings positively?

- Talk to your child about what they are finding difficult.
- If they do not want to talk see if you can find other ways to communicate.
- Help them identify triggers.
- Support them to find more positive ways of managing their anger.
- Create a plan of action together.
- Keep to the rules.
- Model the behaviour you want to see
- Reassure your child and stay positive.

Activity Idea

Now that Spring is here and the weather is getting warmer, it may be nice if you go outside and create some pictures using what is around you. Whether you are on a beach or in the middle of a wood, you can create some stunning pictures, as a family using the materials that you find.
