

Dear Parents / Carers,

Our School Council is made up of two pupils from each year group/class from Year 2 to Year 6. They are selected through a democratic vote within classes. This year our School Council will also be working closely with the local Rotary Club. They have already met to discuss the setting up of a 'Rota Kids' group at Easterside Academy. Rota Kids aims to help build self-esteem, develop leadership skills and introduce young people to community service through Rotary. It aims to help grow children into responsible, caring citizens. Citizenship is an important part of our school curriculum as we aim to show children how they can make a positive impact on their community and have fun doing it! This week our School Council/Rota Kids voted for key positions within the group and our successful pupils are as follows:

President – Oliver W

Vice President – Leah S

Secretary – Grace A

Treasurer – Lewis M

The group will be deciding on a community project shortly that everyone can get involved in! We will keep you all posted.

Best Wishes

Mrs D Linacre

Marvellous Manners!

Every week our Cook and her team choose pupils that have displayed excellent manners in the dining hall at lunchtime. Those children are treated to one of Cook's tasty muffins at break time on Friday. Congratulations to our winners this week! All our awards on Friday are shared on our Twitter feed @easterside_a or can be seen on our website home page www.eastersideacademy.co.uk

REMINDER – ATTENDANCE

If your child is unwell, please make sure that you contact the academy's main office to let them know the reason for the absence. Medical evidence may also be requested if your child has visited the doctors. Thank You
