

Ask somebody to draw around your body on the back of a roll of old wallpaper -make yourself into a life sized Roman Soldier.

Make a model of a shield and/or a helmet. You could use cardboard, silver foil, scraps of material and masking tape.

Draw a portrait of Boudicca.

Boudicca was queen of the Iceni people of Eastern England and led a major uprising against occupying Roman forces.

Read non-fiction books/use the Internet to find out about the Roman Empire and its impact on Britain. Make notes about what you have found out. Don't forget to record it in your reading diary so you can achieve extra house points!

Design and make a piece of Roman jewelry that would WOW your friends. You could use: String, foil, pasta, beads, wool (braids/plaits) or card

How did the fire of Colchester start?

Make a Roman Fort using cereal boxes, lollypop sticks, cardboard, foil, scraps of paper and any other imaginative materials.

Design (on paper or using a computer) a poster to explain the different parts of a Centurions armour and way of life. Alternatively, a poster to show all the amazing things the Romans built.

Create a hearty meal for a Roman soldier. Think about starter, main course and dessert. Try and explain why you chose the ingredients.

<https://www.funtrivia.com/playquiz/quiz32213724e0ec0.html>

Your well-being is very important! Take the quiz to find out more. How many points did you score? Maximum points is 150.

Write a play script for you and your friends to act out a Roman Battle. You can perform this to other classes with friends if you are brave enough!

Make up a song or rap about how you won your battle against the Celts. You could include names of Celtic brave warriors and Roman Emperors.

Information for Children and Parents/Carers:

Well done on starting your Project Homework! Over the next half term, your task is to complete as many of these 'Roman' inspired homework activities as possible.

Once you have completed a homework activity, please bring it into school to share with your classmates and teacher. Remember your homework needs show your superb non-negotiables from school. Thank you and good luck!