

YEAR 1- What makes a good pirate?

Research famous pirates – Blackbeard, Anne Bonny	Create a wanted poster for a pirate!	Write a journal entry as if you were part of the crew on a pirate ship. What do you do? What do you eat? Tea stain the letter!	Have a treasure hunt! Design your own treasure map and then find the treasure! Use language such as half turn, quarter turn, left, right, forwards and backwards	Send me a postcard from your adventures at sea!
Make your own pirate ship. What material will you use? Does it float?	Be a pirate for a day- dress up! What activities would you do? What chores do you have? What would you eat and drink? Tell stories about your adventures! Film a video and send it to Miss Thomas on Dojo!	Can you use a compass? Go on a walk and see what direction you are travelling in! Make note of the directions you travel	Write a recount about your day as a pirate!	Create a holiday brochure – research the holiday destination! This could be for your dream holiday
Create your own shop – make sure your family is giving you the correct amount. What prices are items in your shop? 10p? £1? 8p? Is there an 8p coin? If not how could you make 8p?	What season are we in? What do you notice that is different? Go explore your garden or on a walk and see what you can see! Have you noticed anything about the length of the day?	Go on a walk to either the beach or river! What can you see? E.g cliffs, coastline etc! Can you describe the key physical features?	Create your own pirate head! You could use clay, playdough or different materials. You could even make your own salt dough!	Draw a pirate – can you label basic parts of the human body?
Write a schedule for a pirate’s day – what time must they start the activities? Use o’clock and half past	As a pirate, what animals would you see? What type of animal are they?	Choose a famous pirate and write a story about them! Read your story to your family – remember your story teller voice! You can even film it and send it to Miss Thomas to watch on Dojo!	Make “pirate grog” a Caribbean drink of your own choice.	Make your pirate name with nautical flags www.beaufortonline.com
