Person Specification

Technician - Food Tech

Attributes	Essential	Desirable	How identified
Qualifications, Knowledge and Experience:	● Good standard of education (GCSEs or equivalent, including English and Maths) ● Experience of working in an design/tech or creative environment ● Knowledge of a range of art materials, techniques and processes ● Understanding of health and safety requirements, including COSHH ● Experience of preparing materials and equipment for practical activities ● Basic ICT skills (e.g. email, stock systems)	● Experience of working in a school or educational setting ● First Aid qualification ● Experience of stock control and ordering systems	A A/I A/I A/I A/I A/I

Planning and Organising:	● Ability to organise and prioritise workload effectively ● Ability to prepare resources and equipment in advance of lessons ● Ability to maintain accurate records (e.g. stock, equipment) ● Ability to meet deadlines and respond to changing priorities	● Experience of coordinating resources across multiple classes or staff	A/I A/I A/I A/I

Management and Teamwork:	● Ability to work collaboratively with teaching staff and support staff ● Ability to support students effectively, including small groups ● Willingness to contribute to a positive team ethos	● Experience of supporting practical lessons directly with students	A/I A/I A/I
Communicating and Influencing:	● Clear and effective communication skills ● Ability to work with a range of stakeholders including staff and students ● Ability to promote creativity and engagement in the subject		A/I A/I A/I

Other Skills and Behaviours:	● Commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children ● Strong attention to detail and commitment to high standards ● Ability to maintain a safe, tidy and organised working environment ● Flexible and proactive approach to work ● Willingness to support wider school activities (e.g. trips, events, displays) ● Commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion ● Willingness to undertake professional development		A/I A/I A/I A/I A/I A A/I

A = Application, I = Interview