

Elliston's Great British Bunting

VE Day 75th Anniversary

Friday 8th to Sunday 10th May

On Friday 8th May, Britain will be commemorating the 75th anniversary of VE Day when the guns fell silent at the end of the war in Europe.

Despite not being able to celebrate outside of your homes, we still want you to be able to mark the occasion. We want you to share your pride in our country and honour the men and women of WW2. You can do this by creating your very own VE Day bunting. We shall be making bunting to hang in school and would love to see you hang some in your own homes or gardens.

You can decorate your bunting with pictures of anything that inspires you, whether it is those who fought on the frontline or whether it is a celebration of enduring peace or even for your own personal hero.

We would love to see any photographs of the bunting that you create!
