Dear parents/carers,

Many thanks for completing the questionnaire we sent out last term. Your views are very important to us and we pride ourselves on your support for our school as we continue our journey to outstanding. Below are some of the many, many positive comments we received when we asked you what is great about Elliston

- Since my children have started Elliston in September 16 I have seen a fantastic improvement in their education and attitudes
- Make parents feel valued
- Parents are encouraged to participate in class activities
- The school is very creative
- The friendly atmosphere
- My son really enjoys coming here. He is learning so much, he comes home telling me something new each time he goes
- Teachers know the children well and understand their individual needs
- I love the safeguarding at the school, the signing in
- My son is doing great at this school. They are helping with all concerns
- The teachers are great, helpful, understanding etc.
- You get taught well and it's a happy place.
- Plenty of 'out of school' activities
- Everything, my daughter always wants to come to school
- Find all the staff helpful, easy to talk to and very friendly
- All the teachers, their enthusiasm to see the kids happy and enjoy learning
- The rewards and praise given
- Kept informed
- Elliston has some really great members of staff
- They provide breakfast club and brilliant after school clubs
- The children seem so happy and well looked after
- The holistic approach throughout the school and the excellent staff
- Great staff, great communication
- Everything, I would highly recommend this school
- The staff are great 😊 each and every one of them. They focus on solely helping each child to achieve to their best potential
- Each child is individual and they focus on every child succeeding in the most possible way 😊
- Lots of out of schools activities, trips, swimming, cycle safety
- The staff are all so helpful and friendly. Nothing is too much trouble. They go beyond for children and parents too. My children look forward to going to school each day
- Very caring and friendly staff making children feel safe and welcome
- It is very friendly and welcoming; staff greet you and are very easy to talk to.
- As parents, we like to help our children in their education. Elliston keeps up well informed and lets us partake in some activities

Together we dream, believe, achieve
