

Linda

DEFIES STEREOTYPE

"She's a girl but she's all right"

MANIPULATIVE

"look, Eddie's scared"

PRAGMATIC

"But y'have to [die], Mickey. Everyone does"

COMFORTING

"When you die you'll
meet your twinny again,
won't y'?"

CONFIDENT

"Y' might be more successful if you were to sort of put your arms around here"

STIFLED

"There's a girl
inside the woman
who's waiting to get free"

COMPETENT

"Linda takes the gun and fires. We hear a metallic ping"

REBELLIOUS

"Let's throw some stones at them windows"

FEARLESS

"I'll tell my mother why
all her ciggies always disappear when you're in our house"

OBSERVANT

DEMONSTRATIVE

"I don't care who knows. I just love you. I love you!"

FIGHTS TEMPTATION

"A touch of hands
that parts too soon"

CONFORMS TO STEREOTYPE

"Linda's pregnant!"

PROTECTIVE

"Leave him alone!"

"You stay where y' are, Mickey You've done nothing"
