Parents as Partners

- ▶ As parents you have the first responsibility for educating your children both in their faith and in their social interactions with others.
- ▶ Experience has shown that parents welcome schools providing children with a well-planned programme of Family Life Education where the Personal, Social and Spiritual dimensions of each child can be developed. It is often easier to discuss specific subject matters once the children have had specific lessons in school.

RSE

Throughout the school children follow a Relationship and Sex Education Program 'A Journey in Love.' It is approved by the Archdiocese and Bishops.

This looks at five elements of development:

- ▶ Physical
- ▶ Emotional
- ▶ Intellectual
- ▶ Spiritual
- ▶ Social

It is usually taught throughout the year and also where it fits in with science topics
