4. Principles

The academy will not discriminate against pupils on the basis of protected characteristics, such as disability or race and will give particular consideration to the fair treatment of pupils from groups who are vulnerable to exclusion.

Disruptive behaviour can be an indication of unmet needs. Where there are concerns about a pupil's behaviour the first steps will be to identify whether there are any causal factors and intervene early in order to reduce the need for a subsequent exclusion. The Academy will give consideration to a multi-agency assessment that goes beyond the pupil's educational needs.

All pupils who return to the academy following a suspension will be subject to a re-integration process that will include a meeting with the parent and pupil prior to their return to their class. This meeting will include an agreement with the pupil on managing their future behaviour.

The academy will take reasonable steps to set and mark work for pupils during the first five Academy days of suspension and will arrange alternative provision from the sixth day.

Where parents dispute the decision of the Academy Improvement Committee / Trust not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil, they can ask for this decision to be reviewed by an independent review panel to be arranged by Trust.

All parents have the right to request the presence of a SEN expert at an independent review panel. The SEN expert's role is to provide impartial advice to the panel about how SEN could be relevant to the suspension or exclusion;

5. The Power to Exclude

Only the Principal of the academy can suspend or permanently exclude a pupil and this must be on disciplinary grounds.

A pupil may be suspended for one or more suspensions (up to a maximum of 45 Academy days in a single academic year), or permanently excluded.

Pupils whose behaviour at lunchtime is disruptive may be suspended from the academy premises for the duration of the lunchtime period. This constitutes a half day suspension.

The behaviour of pupils outside the academy can be considered as grounds for suspension or permanent exclusion.

1. The Principal may cancel a suspension or exclusion that has not been reviewed by the Trust.

When a suspension or exclusion is cancelled, the principal will without delay, notify parents, the AIC, the local authority and if relevant the social worker and/or virtual school head and also state the reason for the cancellation.

Parents will be offered the opportunity to meet with the principal to discuss the circumstances that led to the suspension or exclusion being cancelled.

The number of suspensions and exclusions that have been cancelled and the reason for the cancellation, will be reported to the AIC once a term.

The academy will take account of their legal duty of care when sending a pupil home following a suspension or exclusion.

The academy will use the civil standard of proof, i.e. 'on the balance of probabilities' when making judgments in relation to suspension and exclusion.

The academy will not make use of 'informal' or 'unofficial' suspensions, such as sending pupils home 'to cool off'. Any suspension or exclusion of a pupil, even for short periods of time, will be formally recorded.

A decision to exclude a pupil permanently will only be taken:

In response to a serious breach, or persistent breaches, of the academy's behaviour policy; and where allowing the pupil to remain in academy would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in the Academy. The academy will take account of any contributing factors that are identified after an incident of poor behaviour has occurred. For example, where it comes to light that a pupil has suffered bereavement has mental health issues or has been subject to bullying.

All suspensions and exclusions must be recorded on Bromcom and with the Vulnerable Pupils Leader, Rachel Cooper.

6. Informing parties about a suspension or exclusion

Whenever a pupil is suspended or excluded, the academy will notify parents of the period of the suspension or if permanently excluded, and the reasons for it as soon as is immediately practical. In addition, the academy will provide parents with the following information in writing:

- the reasons for the suspension/exclusion
- the period of the suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- parents' right to make representations about the suspension/exclusion to the Academy Improvement Committee and Trust and how the pupil may be involved in this
- the start date for any provision of full-time education that has been arranged for the pupil during the suspension/exclusion
- In addition, the Academy will draw attention to relevant sources of free and impartial information including:
  - a link to DfE statutory guidance on exclusions: exclusions guidance (Exclusion from maintained Schools, Academies and pupil referral units in England from September 2012)
- a link to the Coram Children's Legal Centre: www.childlawadvice.org.uk
- SENDIASS (Name LA area in which the school is located.)

The Principal will, without delay, notify the Local Authority of any suspension or exclusion, regardless of the length of the exclusion.

If a pupil has a social worker, or if a pupil is looked-after, the Principal will, also without delay after their decision, notify the social worker and/or Virtual School Head, as applicable.

- The Principal will, without delay, notify the Academy Improvement Committee and the Trust of <sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub>
  - a permanent exclusion (including where a suspension is made a permanent exclusion);
  - suspensions which would result in the pupil being suspended for more than five Academy days <sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub> (or more than ten lunchtimes) in a term; and <sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub>
  - suspensions which would result in the pupil missing a public examination or national curriculum test. <sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub> For all other exclusions the Principal will notify the local authority, Academy Improvement Committee and the Trust once a term.
  - For a permanent exclusion, if the pupil lives outside the local authority in which the Academy is located, the academy will also advise the pupil's 'home authority' of the exclusion without delay.

7. The Academy Improvement Committee duty to consider an exclusion

The Academy Improvement Committee, under delegated powers from the Trust, will consider parents' representations about an exclusion. Those invited to this meeting will include:

- parents, <sup>[1]</sup><sub>SEP</sub>
- the Principal
- 3 members of the Academy Improvement Committee
- If the pupil has a Social Worker, they must be invited to the meeting.
- The Virtual Head Teacher – If the pupil is looked after.

The Academy Improvement Committee will make every effort to arrange this meeting for a date and time convenient to all parties.

Where there is an exclusion which brings the pupil's total number of days of exclusion to more than five in a term, the Academy Improvement Committee must be informed. The AIC must consider any representations made by parents but cannot direct reinstatement and is not required to arrange a meeting with parents.

In reaching a decision on whether or not to reinstate a pupil, the Academy Improvement Committee will consider whether the decision to exclude the pupil was lawful, reasonable and procedurally fair, taking account of the legal duties of the Academy Leadership and the available evidence.

8. The Trust's duty to arrange an independent review panel

If applied for by parents within the legal time frame, the Trust will arrange for an independent review panel hearing to review the decision of the Academy Improvement Committee not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil.

The legal time frame for an application is:

- Within 15 Academy days of notice being given to the parents by the Academy Improvement Committee of their decision to uphold a permanent exclusion or
- Where an application has not been made within this time frame, within 15 Academy days of the final determination of a claim of discrimination under the Equality Act 2010, in relation to the exclusion
- Any application made outside of the legal time frame will be rejected by the Trust

9. Independent Review

Parents should put in writing to the Clerk to the Academy Improvement Committee if they want an independent review of the Academy Improvement Committees decision. Details can be obtained from the individual academies.

Appendix A - Prevention

Any form of exclusion is a last resort. Principals and Academy Improvement Committees (AICs) must be assured that all reasonable measures have been taken to support every pupil. The following chart sets out a range of points to consider before administering any exclusion:

Appendix B- Prevention- Analysing Behaviours

The ABC of Behaviour

This is a useful way of thinking about why a child is behaving in a certain way. It starts with the premise that the majority of behaviour is rational. It is optimistic – if a behaviour has been learned, it can be unlearned. The ABC model suggests that behaviour can be understood in terms of:

Antecedents:

What happened immediately before the misbehaviour, the events that led up to it?
 What was the provocation, who did or said, or did not say, what?
 What was the setting for the behaviour? Is it always at the same activity, with the same child, or children?

Does it always happen at certain times of the day or on the same day of the week? (Does it happen regularly on a Monday after weekend visits with an estranged parent?)

Behaviour:

What precisely did the child do?

Consequences:

What happened as a result of the behaviour? How was the problem dealt with?
 What did the others do?
 How did they react?

Remember that the consequences might be reinforcing the undesirable behaviour, for example, gaining adults' attention, peer approval, avoiding disliked activity.

The main question to ask is 'what is the child getting out of behaving like this?'

Teaching incompatible skills

This should be the first strategy to consider when attempting to manage challenging behaviour. The most effective, and least restrictive, way of dealing with any kind of disruptive behaviour is attempting to increase the frequency of any kind of activity that is in opposition to the problem behaviour.

REMEMBER – Whatever strategies you use to manage inappropriate behaviour you must be consistent in your approach.

CPOMs should be used to develop a chronology of support. The narrative of this chronology should follow the Plan-Do-Review cycle and demonstrate that reasonable adjustments have been made to support improvements in behaviour. This should include evidence of seeking support beyond the immediate academy where possible.

The following charts may be useful when analysing the behaviour/s of specific pupils.
