

Key Facts

- The characteristics of a friendship include: mutual respect, truthfulness, trustworthiness, loyalty, kindness, generosity, trust, sharing interests and experiences and support with problems and difficulties
- It is important to give and seek permission in relationships with friends, peers, and adults

I will learn the following new words/phrases:

Punctual	Arriving or doing something at the correct time, not late.
Responsible	To have control or be in charge of something. Capable of being trusted.
Irresponsible	Not thinking enough or not worrying about the possible results of what you do.
Appointment	An arrangement to meet someone at a particular time and place.

By the end of these topics, I should:

- recognise the importance of behaving in a responsible manner in a range of situations
- describe a range of situations where being on time is important
- explain the importance of having rules in the home
- describe ways that behaviour can be seen to be sensible and responsible

Ask me a question!

- How can we be responsible at home, at school, and in the community?
- Why do we have rules?
- Why is it important to be on time?
