THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Our Father,

Who art in Heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done
on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil

Reflect on these questions about faith...

What do we mean by a 'source of authority'?

Do communities need to have shared beliefs and values?

What different sources of authority might people turn to for guidance?

Why should I be respectful towards the beliefs of others?

Where do we obtain our guidance from?

Why did Jesus tell the parables?

What happens if members of a community have differing beliefs?

Who or what has influenced my beliefs?

Can I answer:

- Where does the guidance for Christians come from?
- What is the purpose of parables?
- What is the Holy Trinity and the Apostle's Creed?
- Why is the Ecumenical so important?
