

RE - Islam - Year 3 Autumn Term

Prior Learning:

The Prophet Muhammad (pbuh)

- Muhammad (pbuh) was born in 570ad in Mecca, Saudi Arabia.
- Muslims believe Muhammad (pbuh) was the final prophet sent by Allah.
- When he was 40, Muslims believe that Allah told Muhammad (pbuh) the Quran, even though he could not read or write. They believe it is entirely Allah's words.
- Prophet Muhammad is so special to Muslims that they say peace be upon him after his name every time they say or write it. Also, no one may create an image of him to show their respect.

Key Learning

- Muslims believe that Islam began over 1,400 years ago with Muhammad (pbuh).
- Muhammad is so respected that it is usual for Muslims to say 'peace be upon him' whenever they mention his name.
- Muhammad is believed by Muslims to be the last prophet sent by God (Allah). They believe God sent prophets to mankind to teach them how to live according to His law.
- Zakah is one of the five pillars of Islam. Muslims give to charities like Muslim aid to help people less fortunate.

Key Vocabulary

prophet	A messenger from God.
Zakah	The third pillar of Islam, asking Muslims to make a donation to charity once a year.
charity	Organisations who collect money to help those in need.
donation	Something, usually money, given to charities.
pbuh	Peace be upon him
Muslim	Someone who follows the religion of Islam.

The Five Pillars of Islam

These are the five most important duties for Muslims.

Holy Book - The Quran

Muslims believe the Quran is the word of Allah (God), which was revealed to the prophet Muhammad (pbuh) by the angel Gabriel.

Muslims can donate money to Muslim Aid as their Zakah.

The money goes towards emergency help, building communities, education and healthcare.

Muslim Aid was started to help poor people in Africa, but now the charity works in 8 different countries worldwide.

Can I answer:

- How might a Muslim follow the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh)?
- Tell me about the story of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh)?
- What is Zakah and why do Muslims do this?
- What makes someone a good role model?
