Overall aim of the programme:

Our Personal and Social Education qualification is an accessible option for learners of all abilities and ages. The optional units in Personal and Social Education compliment the three core themes in the PSHE Association's Programme of Study: Health and wellbeing, Relationships and Living in the wider world.

These modules aim to;

- Give students a background of knowledge and understanding in relation to personal, social and health education.
- Encourage students to apply their knowledge and understanding in making decisions.
- Promote self-development, through encouraging students to be aware of their own strengths and areas for development.

Our PSHE programme helps young people embrace change, feel positive about who they are and enjoy healthy, safe, responsible and fulfilled lives. Learners will be able to recognise and manage risk, take increasing responsibility for themselves, their choices and behaviours and make positive contributions to their families, schools and communities.
