

Contributing

You share your thoughts and opinions readily, listen to others and develop ideas with them. You take turns, share information and enjoy the interaction with others.

Building respectful relationships (learning is a social activity)