Once every 6 months Once a year Don't know

If often what offer at the Library is most important to you? If not often what would encourage you to use the Library more often?

From our Library needs assessment we have seen a decline in Library usage, what could we do as a council to encourage people into Libraries?

Library Community Hub Vision:

"Library Community Hubs are warm, welcoming spaces for people to socialise and call their own. They are a place for relaxing and meeting new people. The network will offer a variety of spaces that have different offers. These will be open on a full-time and part-time basis."

Library Community Hubs will offer a variety of co-located services, including:

* Core Children's and Adults Library offer * Online and digital support * Accessing food support * Money and debt * Jobs and skills * Housing * Benefits * Health and well-being * Warm welcome * General Information advice and guidance.

To what extent do you agree with offering Library Community Hubs?
