The PTA would like to wish everyone a very happy Easter break

Inconsiderate parking on Cofield Road

The school recently approached the PTA to fund some additional signs to go around the bend on the double yellow lines on Cofield Road.

These signs are to prevent parents from parking in dangerous places which may impede access for emergency vehicles if needed. The double yellows do not deter parents hence the signs.

Whilst the PTA is always glad to provide funds, it is a shame that instead of funds going towards experiences, books or iPads that will benefit many children, the funds are instead being diverted to help a few inconsiderate parents make better choices when parking that currently ignore existing signage and laws. Please respect the signs and do not park on the bend.

Another record breaking Elfridge's!

On 28 March, children chose presents for Mother's Day ably assisted by our elves. A record breaking 370 gifts were sold with all profits going to the PTA to benefit your children. Thank you to Head Elf Claire Butlin and her band of merry helpers. We hope you liked your presents! If you would like to help in future, please email boldmere.pta@gmail.com

Joke of the week

What kind of story does an Easter bunny love?

One with a hoppy ending!
