General Information

School Meals/Milk Orders/ParentPay

We hope that all our year 3 parents have now received their ParentPay password/username information and are able to access the system. Please contact the school office if you have any queries regarding this.

A reminder to all our parents that dinner money must be paid for in advance of your child receiving a meal.

Milk orders – we confirm that we cannot take any more milk orders after this Friday. Children collect their milk at morning break time from the kitchen hatch.

Aston and Nechells Foodbank - Harvest

We will be participating in the above food collection for the Foodbank and your child's class teacher will advise of the details nearer the time.

Special Dietary Needs Form

If your child has special dietary needs, which is supported by a GP/dietitian/paediatrician, please come to the school office to obtain a Dietary Form, which will need to be filled in and returned to the school office in a sealed envelope.

Snacks in School – no nuts

As we have some children in our school who are allergic to nuts, Therefore, we are reminding all our parents/guardians not to provide their child with nuts/snacks containing nuts. Thank you.
