In His Light We Flourish

Enrichment and Spirituality Curriculum Overview

Year 6

You are the Light of the world. A school that stands upon a hill cannot be hidden. (Matthew 5:14 adapted)

Love Laugh Learn in God's World

Term One
Spirituality	British Values	Christian Value: Respect	Christian Value: Thankfulness
Through studying World War II, pupils develop spiritually by reflecting on the experiences of those affected by the war, exploring themes of hope, courage, sacrifice and resilience, and considering questions about peace, human dignity and the values that shape people's actions. Through studying the circulatory system, pupils develop spiritually through awe and wonder at the complexity of the human body, reflecting on the value of life and health, and appreciating their own wellbeing and the interconnected nature of living systems.	Through their study of World War II, pupils will be exploring democracy, individual liberty and the rule of law, while reflecting on the importance of respect and tolerance in preventing prejudice, discrimination and conflict. They learn to appreciate the freedoms and rights enjoyed in modern Britain and the responsibility to protect them. Through studying the Myself and My Relationships unit, pupils will be encouraged to respect themselves and others, celebrate diversity, make responsible choices and understand the importance of rules.	Through studying World War II, pupils develop respect by valuing the experiences and sacrifices of those affected by the war, recognising the importance of equality and human rights, and understanding how tolerance, empathy and mutual respect contribute to peaceful societies. Through Art, pupils develop respect by valuing the creative ideas of others, appreciating artwork from diverse cultures and traditions, and responsibly using shared materials and resources.	Through learning about World War II, pupils develop the Christian value of thankfulness by recognising the courage, sacrifice and resilience of those who lived through the war and appreciating the freedoms they enjoy today as a result of the efforts of previous generations. Through exploring life as a journey, pupils develop the Christian value of thankfulness by reflecting on the people, experiences and opportunities that have (and will) shape their lives and appreciating the gifts and blessings they have been given.
