Dear Parents, Carers and Children,

It has certainly been a cold and icy week across the UK and even Crosby didn't escape the snow! Thank you for working with us to keep the children safe on the days when we needed to change morning routines.

This week we have held a 'Big Democracy' session to gather pupil views about how we can improve lives across 6 key areas: Relationships, Health, Safety, Learning, Environment and Poverty. As always, the children had some great ideas and our School Council will be looking at how we can implement them across the year.

Reading Ambassadors: We love to read at FJS and we are always inundated with applications to become Reading Ambassadors. After much deliberation and scrutiny our existing Ambassadors have made their final decisions. Well done to the following children who will now represent their class:

3KS: Isabelle H and Emily P, 3B: Lucy K and Grace E, 3W: Heidi A and Robyn L

They have already helped to launch an exciting Christmas Poetry Competition... Pupils have been asked to write their own Christmas/Winter themed poem on the 'bauble templates' sent home today.

The closing date for entries will be Thursday, 5th December when the Ambassadors will judge all of the entries and award a prize for the lower and upper juniors. Pupils can decorate their poem however they wish: the more festive, the better! Please make sure that your name and class are clearly written on the back of your entry. All entries should be handed in to class Ambassadors, or to Mr Croot. All baubles will be displayed in our school library and the winning poems will be announced before the end of term. Thank you to everyone who takes the opportunity of joining in with this exciting competition.

Cross-country news Everyone at Forefield would like to wish Evie E from Year 5 the very best of luck as she takes part in a cross-country race on Saturday morning. Having performed extremely well in the first two races of the season, Evie has now been chosen to represent Sefton in two further races, the first one is tomorrow, at Sefton Park.

Have a lovely weekend!
