

Core Values for

Health and Social Care

Part of the Humanities Faculty

Core Value	Meaning	Example
Character	Character is a set of personal traits or dispositions that evoke specific emotions, inform motivation and guide conduct.	What does this look like in Health and Social Care? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Within Health and Social Care, we are committed to challenging inequality and promoting diversity. We do this in Health and social care area by increasing our students understanding of individual's needs, rights and circumstances in order to empathise.
Resilience	Resilience is the ability to adapt and cope in difficult situations and have the confidence to seek support from others.	What does this look like in Health and Social Care? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Health and Social Care enables students to self-reflect and to understand their own unique strengths and weaknesses to enable all learners to reflect to make progress. We nurture a independence of mind and focus within lessons to enable students to be successful in their NEA/ coursework units.
Aspiration	Aspiration is the ability to form dreams, hopes, or ambitions to achieve a life goal. Developing aspirations provides a sense of purpose and direction.	What does this look like in Health and Social care? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Career development is of vital importance in Health and Social Care , we have embedded career links within our specifications so that students can understand how their learning can be implemented in the world of work. We encourage progression from Ks4 studies of Health and Social Care in the department to the plethora of other Social Science subjects in the sixth form, including Health and Social Care as an extended certificate, as well as the diploma to encourage students to aspire to a suitable pathway to reach their career destination.