How we use pupil information

The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) comes into effect on 25th May, 2018. As such, we are obliged to share with you the categories of information that we collect, hold and share about you and your child.

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information (such as termly internal progress assessments, Key Stage 2 results, PIVATS)
- Medical information (such as conditions that will involve the administration of medicine in school, allergies, asthma records etc.)
- SEND information (such as Educational Health Care Plans, provision maps etc.)
- Behavioural information (such as exclusions, warnings, contraventions of school rules)
- Safeguarding information (such as child protection referrals, social work reports etc.)
- Pastoral information (such as photography consent statements, permissions for off-site activities)

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to safeguard children against harm

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We need to collect and use pupil information in order to comply with the relevant legislation for providing education to a child, including the Education Act 2006, the Education and Inspections Act 2006, and the Children's Acts 1989 and 2004. Our lawful basis for processing is therefore as we have a statutory obligation as defined by Article 6(1)(c) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Some of the information we need to hold is classed as special category information – primarily ethnicity, gender and any health conditions. Our legal basis for processing this data is provided by Article 9(2)(b) of GDPR.

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis – for example the use of permission slips for days out, and photographs or digital media to record such events. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will always inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this, and will respect your right to refuse to provide information.

Storing pupil data

We hold your main education records securely until you change school. Your records will then be transferred to your new school, where they will be retained until you reach the age of 25, after which they are safely destroyed.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected. Full details of the Information and Records Management Society's guidelines for retaining school information are available from the IRMS Toolkit for Schools.

All information is held securely with physical, organisational and electronic access controls to safeguard the information both at rest and when in transit.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
- our local authority, Sunderland City Council
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- the School Nursing team and other health professionals

- Contracted providers who process information on the School's behalf – for instance, our SMS parental communication service (Schoolcomms), our in-school update app, Marvellous Me, and other external professionals such as the Educational Psychologist.

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies require us to do so. We will always seek your positive consent to share information if there is no legal basis to share.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements:

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data.

Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
