Statement of intent

St Peter's Primary School recognises that certain groups in society have historically been disadvantaged because of unlawful discrimination they have faced due to their race, sex, disability, gender reassignment, marriage/civil partnership, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.

This policy will put in place a range of actions to eliminate prejudice, unlawful discrimination and victimisation within the school community and workforce.

1. Legal framework

This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to the following:

- Human Rights Act 1998
- Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2015
- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Equality Act 2010
- Equality Act (Specific Duties and Public Authorities) Regulations 2017
- Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED)
- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

This policy also has due regard for non-statutory guidance, including the following:

- DFE (2014) 'The Equality Act 2010 and Schools'

This policy operates in conjunction with the following schools policies:

- Admissions Policy
- Complaints Procedure Policy
- Equal Opportunities Policy

The Equality Act 2010 provides a modern, single legal framework with three broad duties.

- Eliminate discrimination
- Advance equality of opportunity
- Foster good relations

For the purpose of this policy, the Equality Act 2010 will be referred to as 'the Act'.

The school fully understands the principles of the Act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristic are not discriminated against and are given equal opportunities.

Protected characteristic, under the Act, are as follows:

- Age
- Disability
- Race, colour, nationality or ethnicity
- Sex
- Gender reassignment

- Maternity and pregnancy
- Religion and belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage and civil partnership

The Act makes it unlawful for the responsible body of a school to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential pupil.

- In relation to admissions
- In the way it provides education for pupils
- In the way it provides pupil access to any benefit, facility or service
- By excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any detriment.

The responsible body for the school is the governing body and the LA.

The school's liability not to discriminate, harass or victimise does not end when a pupil has left the school, but will apply to subsequent actions connected to the previous relationship between school and pupil, such as the provision of reference on former pupils or access to "old pupils" communications and activities.

The school will promote equality of opportunity for all staff and job applicants and will work in line with the Equal Opportunities and Dignity at Work Policy.

2. Principles and Aims

We see all learners and potential learners, and their parents, as of equal value, regardless of any protected characteristics.

- Our policies, procedures and activities will not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences in life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barriers and disadvantages which people may face in relation to any protected characteristic.
- The School will promote race equality and have due regard to eliminating unlawful racial discrimination, promoting equality of opportunity and good relations between people of different racial groups.
- The school will promote disability equality, ensuring equality of opportunity, eliminating unlawful discrimination and disability-related harassment and encouraging participation by disabled people in public life.
- The school will promote gender equality by eliminating unlawful discrimination and harassment, and promote the equality of opportunity between men and women, girls and boys.

- The school will respect the confidentiality of those seeking gender reassignment and will provide a supportive environment within the community.
- The school is oppose to all forms of prejudice and recognises that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice-related discrimination may fare less well in the education system.
- The school will ensure that all staff comply with the appropriate equality legislation and regulations.
- The school's Admissions Policy will not discriminate against any protected characteristics in any way.

The School Will:

- Ensure staff are aware of their responsibilities, given necessary training and support, and report to governing body.
- Ensure that the recording and reporting of equality and diversity is sufficiently scrutinised by senior leaders and is sufficiently mentioned within the headteacher's report to the governing body at FGB meeting.
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, a shared sense of cohesion and belonging, and ensure this is promoted in our policies, procedures and activities.
- Observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development, and ensure that all policies and procedures benefit all employees and potential employees regardless of any protected characteristics, and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.
- Reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist.
- Engage with a range of groups and individuals to ensure that those who are affected by a policy procedure or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones.
- Ensure that policies, procedures and activities benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in the public life of everyone, regardless of any protected characteristics.
- Ensure staff promote an inclusive and collaborative ethos in the school, challenging inappropriate language and behaviour, responding appropriately to incidents of discrimination and harassment, and showing appropriate support for pupils with additional needs, maintaining a good level of awareness of issues surrounding equality.

3. Roles and responsibilities

The governing body will:

- Ensure that the school complies with the appropriate equality legislation and regulations.
- Meet its obligations to publish equality objectives at least every four years commencing on the date of the last publication.
- Ensure that the school's policies and procedures are developed and implemented with appropriate equality impact assessments informing future plans.
- Ensure that the school's Admissions Policy does not discriminate in any way.
- Ensure equal opportunities in its staff recruitment and promoting practices, professional development programmes and in membership of the governing body.
- Proactively recruit high quality applicants from under-represented groups.
- Provide information in appropriate and accessible formats.
- Ensure that the necessary disciplinary measures are in place to enforce this policy.

The headteacher will:

- Implement this policy and its procedures.
- Ensure that all staff members receive the appropriate equality and diversity training as part of their induction and CPD.
- Ensure that all parents, visitors and contractors are aware of, and comply with the provision of this policy. It is available on the school website and accessible to all stakeholders,
- Actively challenge and take appropriate action in any case of discriminatory practice.
- Address any reported incidents of harassment or bullying in line with DfE guidance.
- Produce an annual report on the progress of implementing and provisions of this policy and report it to the governing body.

Employees will:

- Be mindful of any incidents of harassment or bullying in the school.
- Address any minor issues of harassment or bullying and report any major breaches of the policy to the headteacher.
- Identify and challenge bias and stereotyping within the curriculum and the school's culture.

- Promote equality and good relations, and not harass or discriminate in any way.
- Monitor pupils' progress and academic needs to ensure the appropriate support is in place,
- Keep up-to-date with equality legislation and its application by attending the appropriate training.

Pupils will:

- Not discriminate or harass any other pupil or staff member.
- Actively encourage equality and diversity in the school by contributing their cultural experiences and values.
- Report any incidences of bullying or harassment, whether to themselves or to others, to the class teacher, TA, member of SLT or to another member of staff, who will then report to the HT.
- Abide by all the school's equality and diversity policies, procedures and codes.

The school will have an equality policy/framework on its website, in order to demonstrate how it is complying with PSED in the Equality Act 2010, and advancing equality of opportunity. See website curriculum for PSED (Personal Social Emotional Development)

4. Equality Objectives

The school is committed to promoting the welfare and equality of all its staff, pupils and other members of the school community. To achieve this, the school has established the following objectives:

Objective One:

- To monitor levels of parental and pupil engagement in learning and school life to ensure equality, fairness in access and engagement.

Objective Two:

- To promote cultural development and understanding through a rich range of experiences.

Objective Three:

- To monitor and support attendance of all groups of children in school.

Objective Four:

- Ensure all learners have equal access to a broad, balanced and relevant curriculum.

The school will update all published equality documentation annually and will publish its objectives at least every four years. See page ___ for actions and monitoring of the set objectives.

5. Collecting and using information

The school will collect equality information for the purpose of:

- Identifying key issues, e.g. unlawful discrimination in teaching methods.
- Assessing performance, e.g. benchmarking against similar organisations locally or nationally.
- Taking action, e.g. adapting working practice to accommodate the needs of staff who share protected characteristics.

The school will build an equality profile for staff to assist with identifying any issues within their recruitment regime. The school will obtain the following information from their staff.

- Recruitment and promotion
- Numbers of part-time and full-time staff
- Pay and remuneration
- Training
- Return to work of women on maternity leave
- Return to work of disabled employees following sick leave relating to their disabilities.
- Appraisals
- Grievances (including harassment)
- Disciplinary action (including harassment)
- Dismissals and other reasons for leaving

The school will use the information they obtain to analyse any gaps present in their equality documentary, including Equal Opportunities Policy.

Any personal data the school collects will be processed in accordance with the Data Protection Policy.

6. Publishing information

The school will publish information to demonstrate its compliance with the Act.

7. Promoting equality

In order to meet our objectives, the school has identified the following priorities:

- The school will provide auxiliary aids that are directly related to disabled pupil's educational needs as a reasonable adjustment, so they integrate wholly in all part of school life.
- Staff will ensure that all pupils are able to take part in extra-curricular activities and residential visits, and the school will monitor uptake of these visits to ensure no one is disadvantaged on the grounds of a protected characteristic.
- The school will ensure that all forms of prejudice- motivated bullying is taken seriously and dealt with equally and firmly.
- The school has a British Values statement and British Values are discussed in class.
- There will be differential scheme of work designed to meet the abilities and learning styles of all pupils.
- There will be clearly defined disciplinary system stipulated in the Behaviour Policy, which will be consistently enforced.
- The school will provide access for disabled children and young people to the school curriculum and will take necessary steps to meet pupils' needs by using a variety of approaches and planning reasonable adjustments for disabled pupils, enabling them to take as full a part as possible in the activities of the school.
- The school will ensure there is adequate access to the physical environment of the school.
- The school will improve the delivery of written information to disabled children and young people,
- The school will seek the views of advisory staff, outside agencies and local schools.
- Throughout the year, the school will plan ongoing events to raise awareness of equality and diversity.
- The school will consult with stakeholders to establish equality objectives and draw up a plan based on information collected on protected groups and accessibility planning.

Equality objectives will be published at least every four years commencing on the date of the last publication.

Bullying and prejudice will be carefully monitored and dealt with accordingly.

Annual training will be given to both existing and new staff to ensure that they are aware of the process for reporting and following up incidents of prejudice-related bullying.

8. Addressing prejudice-related incidents.

The school is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that pupils and staff who experience any form of prejudice-related discrimination may fare less well in the education system.

The school will ensure that pupils and staff are aware of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents from occurring.

If incidents continue to occur, the school will address them immediately and report them to the LA.

9. Appeal process

Staff members retain the right to appeal against a decision on the acceptability of their appearance e.g. dress code, using the school's grievance procedure.

The school will adhere to the Complaints Procedure Policy when following the grievance procedure.

10. Curriculum

- All pupils will be entitled to access a broad and balanced curriculum and to teaching and learning opportunities which meet their needs, including extra support where this has been identified as a statutory need.
- When planning the curriculum, the school will take every opportunity to promote and advance equality.
- When teaching the curriculum, the school will promote equality and will not subject individuals to discrimination.
- The school will develop an appropriate curriculum for all pupils in all vulnerable groups.
- The school will ensure PSHE lessons are designed for pupils to develop their knowledge of the world and the importance of equality and culture.

11. Monitoring and review

The headteacher will review this policy annually, to ensure that all procedures are up-to-date.

The policy will be monitored and evaluated by the Headteacher and governing body in the following ways:

- Individual attainment data
- Equal opportunities recruitment data
- Equality impact assessments
- Ofsted inspection judgements on equality and diversity
- Incident records related to harassment and bullying

Any changes made to this policy will be communicated to all members of staff.

12. Equality Objectives 2024-2025

Objective	Action	Monitoring
Advancing Equality of Opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.	Implement a PSHE Curriculum and Anti-Racist teaching as part of school vision, which teaches understanding of diversity, appropriate behaviour and how children can support each other.	All staff vigilantly monitoring children's development, adoption and expression of these values.
	School values embedded in worship and teaching. These values are: respect, compassion, kindness, courage, forgiveness and love.
	Tracking of attainment and progress for all pupils. Children who are off track receive intervention and differentiated teaching and support where staffing levels make this practical.	Teachers tracking of basic key skills and subjects for equality of learning outcomes.

	Ensure high attendance levels by all children across all groups.	Senior Leaders monitoring and involvement as necessary with parents.
	Checking and encouraging the participation in extra-curricular activities across groups.	DHT and SENCO measures participation levels and evaluates and adjusts as necessary what is on offer.
	Behaviour records both record any bullying or harassment of children with protected characteristics and monitor the characteristics of children involved in behaviour incidents.	Governors monitor any bullying or harassment according to incident type and characteristics of those involved.
Consulting those affected by inequality, in the decisions taken to promote equality and eliminate discrimination.	Parent survey- bullying and behaviour, SEND achievement, participation, PSHE curriculum. Pupil survey- equal treatment, behaviour, encouragement to participate in extra-curricular activities. Staff survey- and involvement in identifying school values and vision statement.	Determine and respond to annual survey results.
		Contribute to CPD training on school vision and values.
