

To good to be true.

Money or trade is asked for.

Asking for personal information.

Contact you did not expect.

Phishing is one of the most used scam methods used throughout the whole world, this method is where they pretend to be a well-known organisation or company, and trick you into thinking their real and ask for money. So, this is definitely something to look out for.

We are HSBC bank, you need to renew your details for our yearly check up to give us your detail press on this link hsbc/hssjcywsbh';djsk

A. Click on the link and tell them your details.

B. Tell a trusted adult.

C. Deal with it yourself.

Tell me how you know this is

:

Correct answer B