

Name:

Date:

Use the conjunctions below to join these pairs of sentences together. You can use each conjunction more than once if you need to.

1. Judy went to the shop. She bought a chocolate bar.
2. Paddington fell over. He was fine.
3. It was cold that morning. Jonathan wore a hat.
4. Paddington felt sad. Mr Brown was cross with him.
5. Mrs Bird was tired. She still went dancing.
6. It was very dark. Paddington had a torch.
7. Mrs Brown felt very silly. She found her missing phone.
8. Paddington decided to stay up. Aunt Lucy called him.
9. The new dog barked. The doorbell rang.
10. Paddington felt better. He had tidied his room.

Conjunctions:

so, but, and, however, because, although, if, when, even though, since, until, rather than, whenever, that, once