

Terrible Tudors!

Year 4 Lilac Home Learning Ideas - Summer 2

A quick introduction The Tudors! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PCmogoGpnxg>

Make a Tudor House from an old cereal box! You will need a couple of boxes, white paint/paper, glue, scissors, black marker pen/paint/paper and potentially, a ruler!

Try a Tudor recipe! Maybe Tarte of Strawberyes? (Strawberry Tart)

The recipe and method is below all the information on Tudor cooking.

Complete some research into Henry VIII... Imagine you are a talk show host, interviewing the very famous Tudor King, what questions would you dare to ask him?

Maybe turn this into a role play or quiz!

The Tudors loved jewellery! Look at portraits completed during the Tudor period and most are wearing some form of jewellery! It represented wealth and power in those times!

Can you create your own jewellery fit for Tudor royalty?

Portraits were so important to those with power and wealth during Tudor times. Have a look on The National Portrait Gallery to view some:

Create your own portrait of yourself or someone else at home!

Research pictures of The Tudor Crown, also known as Henry VIII's crown, it was very grand and flamboyant, much like Henry VIII.

Can you create your own crown to impress Henry VIII?

William Shakespeare wrote very famous plays such as Romeo & Juliet, Macbeth and Hamlet. Try writing your own play! Create characters, set the scene, you could even make costumes and a stage for your play for a big performance!

In the video below, Shakespeare visits a school in today's age...

Can you create your own song based on the Terrible Tudors?

There is a special meaning behind a Tudor Rose... do you know what it is? Try recreating the iconic Tudor rose using different materials you have at home, maybe tissue paper, paint, old material or twigs, stones etc. Get creative!

The Tudors were very famous for hosting magnificent banquets with lots of meat, bread, puddings and sweets! Tudors believed that raw veg and salads made you ill so never included them! Imagine you are hosting a dinner party... what would your banquet look like? Draw and picture and label it! Maybe you could create a 3D banquet table?!

Research royalty during Tudor time and create a timeline/family tree of all that you find! Be sure to include full names and dates!

The Tudor reign began with Henry VII and Elizabeth of York, they will always be at the start of your timeline/family tree.
