

Manipulate

(verb)

Verb: handle or control (a tool, mechanism, information, etc.) in a skilful manner OR control or influence (a person or situation) cleverly or unscrupulously.

Etymology: from French manipulation, from manipule "handful" (a pharmacists' measure), from Latin manipulus "handful, sheaf, bundle," from manus "hand"

Sentences containing the word 'manipulate' in different forms:

- He managed to manipulate the situation to his own advantage.
- He knows how to manipulate her parents in order to get what she wants.
- He had been accused of trying to manipulate the price of stock.

French translation:
Manipuler

Synonyms

- Operate
- Influence
- Orchestrate

Antonyms

- Destroy
- Leave alone