Year 2 – Summer 1	RE	Generosity: Dana in Hinduism

What should I already know?

- We have looked at Hindu Creation stories
- We thought about what it means to belong to a community
- We have thought about how Christians show they belong to a community

Vocabulary

Generous	Being kind and happy to share, give, or help others without expecting anything back.
Community	A group of people living in the same area or sharing common interests, goals, and values.
Dana	The practice of giving or generosity in many Eastern cultures and religions.
Hindu	A Hindu is someone who follows Hinduism, one of the world's oldest religions and a way of life that began in India.

Step 1—Communicate

I can express creatively my response to my own experiences of community

Sticky Knowledge   A community is a group of people who live in the same area or share common interests, goals or values.

Step 2 - Apply

I can recognise my responses in relation to giving to my community.

I can give an example of an activity that shows generosity in the community (Harvest festival, litter picking etc).

Step 3— Inquire

I can recognise what has been taught about community and identify examples of community

Sticky Knowledge   I can talk about local examples of generosity in the community: Southampton City Mission, Frankie Benali, Sophie's Legacy

Step 4—Contextualise

I can recognise how community is represented within the Hindu tradition of dāna.

Sticky Knowledge   Dana, meaning generosity, is one of the most important values in Hindu communities.

Step 5—Evaluate

I can recognise the value of community to people who celebrate Hindu Traditions and to themselves.

Sticky Knowledge   I can participate in an act of generosity in my community and talk about it.

Evaluate
How can we show generosity in our own communities?

When have we experienced Generosity in our communities?
Communicate

Community - Generosity

When do we give to our community?
Apply

Contextualise
Why is generosity important in Hindu traditions?

Enquire
Why do people give to others in their community?