Autumn Term Newsletter 2023

Welcome to Bookworms our brand new reading newsletter designed and written by our reading ambassadors and Mrs Rudman.

Meet our Reading Ambassadors.

Our Reading Ambassadors are the reading heroes of our school!! They will ensure the library is always perfect. They will read with other children and they will write this Bookworms newsletter for you!!!

Stevie's favourite thing to do is read. His favourite book at the moment is The Book With No Pictures because it has lots of funny words in it.

Skyla loves reading!!! Her favourite book at the moment is The Twits because the whole book is funny.

Thomas is enjoying reading Billy and the Beast right now. He loves this book because the character is called Fat Cat because it's a funny name.

Ruby finds reading very enjoyable. Her favourite book at the moment is Awful Auntie because lots of funny things happen in it. Ruby's favourite character is Soot because he's mysterious.

Ethan likes to read. His favourite book is Elmer because it's extremely colourful and if it wasn't he'd feel gloomy.

Seine love reading Horrid Henry. Her favourite is Horrid Henry nightmare because the characters are silly and Henry is rude.

Class Reads

These are the books we have been reading in class.

Year 2 are loving the Christmasaurus. They wait in anticipation every day to see what is going to happen next.

EYFS are enjoying reading and learning about different families. This has helped them to understand that families are not always the same.

Jeffers love reading The Jolly Postman. They have particularly enjoyed waiting to see who the postman is going to deliver to next.

Butterworth are enjoying their class book How Winston Delivered Christmas. They loved it when Winston found Oliver's letter and then travelled to the North Pole.

Exciting News!!!!!!
