

English Progression of Skills Year One

Spoken Language

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge
- use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas
- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider different viewpoints, attending to and building on contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

- understand how words can combine to make sentences
- use the conjunction ‘and’ to link words and join clauses
- separate words with spaces
- begin to use capital letters, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks to demarcate sentences
- use capital letters for names of people, places and the days of the week
- use a capital letter for the personal pronoun I
- use the word ‘because’ to explain
- use time words to aid sequencing (to be formally introduced as time adverbs through grammar work in year 3)

Terminology

Text Types

- Story
- Familiar stories and traditional tales
- Recount
- Explanation text
- Rhymes
- Poetry with simple repeated structure

Spelling

- spell words containing the 40+ phonemes taught
- spell the days of the week
- spell common exception words
- name letters of the alphabet in order
- use letter names to distinguish between alternative spellings of same sound
- use regular plural noun suffixes –s or –es
- add suffixes to verbs where no change is needed in the spelling of root words
- know how the prefix un– changes the meaning of verbs and adjectives

Handwriting

- sit correctly at a table, holding a pencil comfortably and correctly

- to recite rhymes and poems by heart
- discuss word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known
- develop understanding by drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher
- check that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate reading
- discuss the significance of the title and events
- make inferences on the basis of what is being said and done
- predict what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far
- participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say
- explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them

- use simple features correctly e.g. greeting in a letter, numbers in a list

Proof-reading, editing and evaluating

- discuss what they have written with the teacher or other pupils
- re-read what they have written to check that it makes sense and attempts to edit for sense.

Presenting

- read aloud their writing clearly enough to be heard by peers and teacher

English Progression of Skills Year Two

Spoken Language

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge
- use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas
- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play/improvisations and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

- form nouns using suffixes (-ness, -er) and by compounding e.g. snowman
- form adjectives using suffixes such as -ful, -less
- use suffixes -er, -est, -ly to turn adjectives into adverbs
- use conjunctions for subordination (when, if, that, because) and co-ordination (or, and, but)
- use expanded noun phrases for description and specification, e.g. the blue butterfly, plain flour, the man in the moon
- understand how the grammatical patterns in a sentence indicate its function as a statement, question, exclamation or command
- use present tense/ past tense consistently throughout writing
- use the progressive form of verbs in the present and past tense to mark actions in progress, e.g. she is drumming, he was shouting
- use capital letters, full stops, question marks and exclamation marks to demarcate sentences
- use commas to separate items in a list
- use apostrophes to mark where letters are missing in spelling and to mark singular possession in nouns, e.g. the girl's name

Text types

- Persuasive letter
- Report
- Poetry
- Plays
- Information texts

Spelling

- segmenting spoken words into phonemes and representing these by graphemes, spelling many correctly
- learning new ways of spelling phonemes for which 1 or more spellings are already known, and learn some words with each spelling
- add -ing, -ed, -er, -est } add '-es' to nouns and verbs ending in 'y'
- add suffixes: -ful, -less, -ly, -ment, -ness
- homophones (there/ their/ they're, to/too/two, here/hear)
- learn to spell words with contracted forms
- learn how to use the possessive apostrophe (singular nouns)

Handwriting

- form lower-case letters of the correct size relative to one another
- start using some of the diagonal and horizontal strokes needed to join letters (starting with digraphs) and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined
- write capital letters of the correct size, orientation and relationship to one another and to lower-case letters

- develop understanding by drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher
- checking that the text makes sense to them as they read, and correcting inaccurate reading
- making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done
- answering and asking questions
- predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far
- participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to them and those that they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say
- explain and discuss their understanding of books, poems and other material, both those that they listen to and those that they read for themselves

- use some features of the given form maintaining consistency in purpose and tense
- suggest viewpoint with brief comments or questions on actions or situations

Proof-reading, editing and evaluating

- make simple additions, revisions and corrections to writing by proof-reading to check for errors in spelling, grammar and punctuation; evaluating writing with the teacher and other pupils; re-reading to check writing makes sense and that verbs to indicate time are used correctly and consistently

Presenting

- read aloud what has been written with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear

English Progression of Skills Year Three

Spoken Language

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge
- use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas
- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play/improvisations and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

- form nouns using a range of prefixes, e.g. super-, anti-, auto-
- use 'a' or 'an' according to whether the next word begins with a consonant or a vowel, e.g. a rock, an open box
- understand word families based on common words, showing how words are related in form and meaning, e.g. solve, solution
- express time, place and cause using conjunctions, e.g. when, before, after, while, so, because, adverbs, e.g. then, next, soon, therefore, or prepositions, e.g. before, after, during, in, because of
- understand paragraphs as a way to group related material
- understand how headings and sub-headings aid presentation
- use present perfect form of verbs instead of the simple past, e.g. 'He has gone out to play' contrasted with 'He went out to play'
- begin to use inverted commas to punctuate direct speech

Text types

- Myths and legends
- Folk tales
- Reference books
- Textbooks
- Dictionaries
- Non-fiction texts with contents and index pages
- Plays
- Letters
- Diary
- Instructions
- Poetry (free verse, narrative poetry)

Spelling

- add prefixes dis-, mis-, re-, sub-, tele-, super-, auto-
- add suffix '-ly' with root words ending in 'le' and 'ic'
- spell homophones

- use the diagonal and horizontal strokes that are needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined
- increase the legibility, consistency and quality of their handwriting (for example, by ensuring that the downstrokes of letters are parallel and equidistant; that lines of writing are spaced sufficiently so that the ascenders and descenders of letters do not touch)

- group information, often moving from general to more specific detail
- begin to use paragraphs to group related materials
- use organisational devices to aid conciseness, e.g. numbered lists or headings
- attempt to adopt a viewpoint
- imitate authorial techniques gathered from reading
- select and use formal and informal styles and vocabulary appropriate to the purpose/reader

Proof-reading, editing and evaluating

- proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors
- evaluate and edit by proposing changes to vocabulary to improve consistency, showing awareness of the reader
- evaluate and edit by assessing the effectiveness of their own and other's writing and suggesting improvements

Presenting

- read aloud own writing, to a group or the whole class, using appropriate intonation and controlling the volume so that the meaning is clear

English Progression of Skills Year Four

Spoken Language

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge
- use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings

Proof-reading, editing and evaluating

- proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors
- evaluate and edit by proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve consistency, including the accurate use of pronouns in sentences
- evaluate and edit by assessing the effectiveness of their own and other's writing and suggesting improvements

Presenting

- read aloud own writing, to a group or the whole class, using appropriate intonation and controlling the volume so that the meaning is clear

English Progression of Skills Year Five

Spoken Language

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge
- use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas

- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

- convert nouns or adjectives into verbs using suffixes, e.g. –ate; –ise; –ify
- understand verb prefixes, e.g. dis–, de–, mis–, over– and re–
- use relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that, or an omitted relative pronoun
- indicate degrees of possibility using adverbs, e.g. perhaps, surely, or modal verbs, e.g. might, should, will, must
- use devices to build cohesion within a paragraph, e.g. then, after that, this, firstly
- link ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time, e.g. later, place, e.g. nearby, and number, e.g. secondly, or tense choices, e.g. he had seen her before
- use brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis
- use commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity

Text Types

- Myths and legends
- Traditional stories
- Modern fiction Fiction from our literary heritage (pre 20th Century)
- Books from other cultures and traditions
- Poetry to learn by heart
- Poems using onomatopoeia, metaphor, personification
- Non-fiction
- Biography

Spelling

- spell words with the letter string ‘ough’
- spell words ending in ‘-able’/ ‘-ably’ and ‘-ible’/‘-ibly’
- spell homophones
- spell words with ‘silent’ letters
- use spelling journals for etymology
- use a dictionary to support learning word roots, derivations and spelling patterns
- use strategies at the point of writing: using etymological/ morphological strategies for spelling

Handwriting

- write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed by choosing which shape of a letter to use when given choices and deciding whether or not to join specific letters
- choose the writing implement that is best suited for a task

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge
- use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas
- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play/improvisations and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

- understand the difference between vocabulary typical of informal speech and vocabulary appropriate for formal speech and writing
- understand how words are related by meaning as synonyms and antonyms
- understand how use of the passive effects the presentation of information in a sentence
- link ideas across paragraphs using a wider range of cohesive devices: repetition of a word or phrase, grammatical connections
- understand layout devices (headings, sub-heading, columns, bullets, tables)
- use a semi-colon, colon or dash to mark the boundary between independent clauses
- use colons to introduce a list and use semi-colons within lists
- use bullet points to list information
- understand how hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity [for example, man eating shark versus man-eating shark, or recover versus re-cover]
