Dear Families

Next Week in school we will be celebrating all things books and stories as part of recognition of World Book Day taking place on Thursday.

Throughout the week teachers will be dedicated additional time to reading and stories by engaging in things like live lessons and Book Quizzes with World Book day organisations, a 'Teacher

Take Over' with all staff setting up a story telling area for 30 minutes with children visiting each in small groups and word related activities during Forest Friday.

To mark World Book Day on Thursday 6th March we are also inviting children to come to school dressed ready for a day of reading – this might be comfy clothes, pyjamas or an outfit inspired by a character in a book. Doors will also be open as normal at 3:00pm for families to join children for their class story time.

We will also be using World Book Day to launch March as a 'Month of Reading'. Attached to this letter is a challenge booklet children will be bringing home on World Book Day that they can engage in, starting from Thursday, for awards and prizes to encourage good reading habits. Complete booklets should be brought in at the end of March – the last week before the Easter Holiday so awards can be given.

We can't wait celebrate all things books and reading with your children and thank you in advance for your support.

Kindest Regards
Miss D Barker
