Useful revision resources:

List websites, links to past papers, books etc here

Your first point of revision should be your class books and work books from the beginning of year 10. As a cohort you have consistently practised past papers and assessments which you should have in your file.

The following links are useful

1. Immigration in the 1920s
2. Actions of Hoover to the Great Depression
3. Actions of Roosevelt to the Great Depression
4. The Civil Rights Movement
5. Feminism in the 60s and 70s

Past papers are available on the AQA website.

Which revision guides etc do you recommend, how can students buy these?

We sell the OXFORD revision guides from the history department. We have both books which are available for £5 a book. They are also available via Amazon using the links below:

Revision Tips

The first step should be to identify gaps in your knowledge. Use the title blue sheets and knowledge organisers to RAG your confidence.

Use the structured revision that you have completed to 'crunch' your notes in to smaller manageable pieces.

Ask your parents to help to check your facts.
