

Subject: English
Year 9

Topics you should revise

In Search of Justice: Non- Fiction
Julius Caesar by William Shakespeare
The genre of tragedy including terminology
The Art of Rhetoric

Writing a speech including purpose, audience, rhetorical devices, sentence structures and punctuation

Useful revision resources:

- Knowledge organiser
- Exercise book
- In Search of Justice anthology
- Julius Caesar booklet
- Websites:
 - Unit - Oak National Academy \(thenational.academy\)
 - Analysing non-fiction - GCSE English Language Revision - AQA - BBC Bitesize
 - aristotles_tragedy_terms.pdf \(weebly.com\)

Revision Tips

- Create something new: Just sitting and re-reading your notes isn't revision! Make something new - a knowledge organiser, a concept map, flashcards, a quiz... anything that makes you work with the knowledge actively. You could even get a blank copy of the texts from In Search of Justice or Julius Caesar and check your analysis of it!
- Read it again: Re-read your copies of In Search of Justice and Julius Caesar. It's helpful to have it fresh in your mind as we move closer to your assessment. You might want to have your exercise book close by to go back over the notes as you read the text in class.
- Don't forget to practise: Take a quiz on BBC bitesize or ask someone at home to quiz you on the different texts. They might want to ask you questions about the plot and characters in Julius Caesar or the key terminology for the genre of tragedy.
- Not feeling motivated? Revise little and often: If you struggle to revise for extended periods of time, try to revise for a few minutes each day instead. Use your knowledge organiser to check key terms, definitions of techniques or the plot. You can also use your exercise book or anthologies from lesson to check your notes.