You must identify and declare any material presented in your submission that is not your own, such as quotes and images. It is essential that anyone assessing the work, especially a moderator, is able to distinguish between what is the candidate's own work and what is taken from other sources. If every example of such material is clearly acknowledged within the body of the work, then there is no requirement to repeat this information here. However, any examples that have not been acknowledged in the body of the work must be identified below. Failure to disclose every such item below can have serious consequences:

Apart from exceptions listed above, I declare that this is all my own work and I have acknowledged all my referenced sources:

GDPR CONSENT

WJEC/EDUQAS may select your work for use in teaching and learning resources published on the WJEC/EDUQAS public website. Your name would be removed from your work before we use it. All materials are reviewed regularly and are removed when no longer relevant to our qualifications.

You understand that this agreement may be terminated at any time through written request. You must be over 16 to provide consent otherwise permission must be given by your parent / guardian.

You may withdraw your consent at any time by contacting WJEC/EDUQAS on artanddesign@edugas.co.uk. Please include the title of the work, the year of assessment, centre name and number, candidate name and the component in the communication. It would also be helpful if you could provide a link to the work. WJEC/EDUQAS will then ensure the work is removed from the public website.

For further details about how we process your data please read WJEC/EDUQAS' privacy notice.

If you prefer that WJEC/EDUQAS does not use your work in this way, please tick here: ☐
