

A man in a dark suit and blue tie is sitting at a table in a classroom, holding a yellow pyramid. He is looking towards a young boy in a maroon school uniform and glasses who is also sitting at the table. The background shows a classroom with posters and a whiteboard. There are several colorful geometric shapes (pyramids and cylinders) on the table. A blue semi-transparent box is in the top left corner containing the text 'NPQSL'. A white semi-transparent box is at the bottom containing the text 'National Professional Qualification for Senior Leadership'. A quote in white text is on the right side of the image.
